Open Air Concert Brings Mental Health Month to a Close

Cumberland County, PA- The Cumberland County Board of Commissioners invites the public to attend an Open Air Concert on May 31st from 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. at Little Buffalo State Park in the East Day use area. This concert will mark the end of Cumberland/Perry Counties' Mental Health Month events. The concert will feature five live bands providing five hours of musical entertainment. This concert is free to the public and promises to be a great way to relax and spend the day.

The five bands scheduled to appear have all volunteered their time and talents. Artesian Legacy kicks off the concert at 11:15 A.M. This band was formed in early March by Annie Strite, from the Cumberland/Perry County Mental Health Office, who brought together talent from providers, friends, and Cumberland County Chief Clerk (Larry Thomas). Colby Dave and Chubediah will take the stage at 12:30 P.M. and will be followed by Nate Myers, the Sabrina Duke Band, and J.R. Wolf who will close the concert. The willingness of the five bands to volunteer their time and talent to celebrate mental health month is commendable and demonstrates the community's support of individuals in recovery.

The Cumberland/Perry Counties' Mental Health Month programs are made possible by Cumberland/Perry Community Support Program, under the leadership of Joseph Martin.
