Cumberland County Appoints New Representative To Capital Area Transit Board

Cumberland County, PA- The Cumberland County Board of Commissioners is pleased to announce that effective January 3, 2017, Mr. Scott Wyland represents Cumberland County as Cumberland County's newest appointed representative to the Capital Area Transit Board (CAT). Wyland will serve a 5-year term on the CAT Board to represent Cumberland County on matters regarding the County's direction on public transit and regionalization. Wyland, who resides in Wormleysburg, is a shareholder in the law firm of Salzmann Hughes and formerly represented Cumberland County as Chairman of the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission.

Wyland will fill the seat vacated by Rick Rovegno, whose term on the CAT Board expired in 2016. As such, Mr. Rovegno no longer represents the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners or their positions on public transit matters going forward.
